

Biographical Information

Colin Donovan
Vice President of Theology
EWTN Global Catholic Network

Colin Donovan, Vice President of Theology, is the Friday host of EWTN's daily radio show, "Open Line," an on-air question and answer forum which celebrated its twentieth year in 2022. He also hosts the theology edition of EWTN TV's "Catholic Sphere," and had previously hosted the EWTN Theology Roundtable.

Colin has a Licentiate in Sacred Theology (STL), with a specialization in moral theology, from the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome. In addition, he has received the Diploma and appointment by Pope Francis to the Pontifical International Marian Academy. He holds a BTh from the Seminary of Christ the King in Mission, BC, Canada, and a BA in Biological Science from Northwestern University in Evanston, IL, where he was also commissioned an officer in the U.S. Navy, having participated in the NROTC.

Prior to coming to EWTN in 1995, Colin taught Theology at Aquinas College in Nashville and the Novitiate of the Nashville Dominicans. He had previously served in the U.S. Navy, and worked in manufacturing at Honeywell Marine Systems Operations.
